

Client / Fairweather Proberts
Location / Noosa
Value / $4 million
Services / Structural Engineering

Each of these houses within the Elysium development in Noosa feature carefully detailed exposed steel, timber, concrete and glass structures. Swimming pools and water tanks that are integrated into the foundations and superstructure were designed by our engineers.

The houses also feature cantilevered balconies and stairs, double height glazed walls and high specification exposed concrete walls.